Ten Candidates for the American Derby Contested-Savable Now Favorite for Big Race.

CHICAGO, June 13.-Against nine American Derby candidates John A. Drake's Savable, champion three-year-old of the West, victor of the Futurity last year and equal favorite with Irish Lad for the Derby, won the M. Lewis Clark stakes to-day in a sensational rush. J. B. Respess's muchtouted colt Bernays was second, a length and a half in front of The Picket. Savable was a heavily played favorite and the race was probably the greatest of his career. At the head of the stretch the Drake colt looked hopelessly beaten. However, Jockey Gray took desperate chances, coming through almost a compact bunch just below the eighth pole. The big colt literally forced a gap, and when he was once clear there was nothing to the race. Savable mowed down his field in a sensational rush, got in front at the sixteenth pole and then won unextended. Ten of the eleven day. Willis pitched splendid ball. Score: Derby candidates accepted the issue in the race. The only absentee was C. E. NEW YORK, June 13 .- On a track that was hoof deep in mud, Whorler came in an easy winner in the Brooklyn Derby at Gravesend to-day. He was little thought of in the betting, closing at 5 to 1. Golden Maxim, the odds-on favorite, was second and was decisively beaten. The Brooklyn Derby is the richest three-year-old stake run at the meeting and four good colts faced the starter. Whorler and Flying Jib were equal second choices. They were off to a good start and O'Neil sent his mount to the front, closely followed by Merry Acrobat and the favorite third. Flying Jib was a beaten horse before the field had gone a quarter of a mile. Meanwhile, Whorler and Merry Acrobat were out in front fighting for the lead. At the EVANSVILLE, June 13.-Russell's single | end of the mile Whorler had a clear two up to second place. When well into the RHE stretch, O'Neil gave his mount his head and he won by four lengths. MILWAUKEE FORFEIT OF GAME IS

AN UNUSUAL OCCURRENCE.

Twelve-Club Plan-Notes.

Manager Watkins, of the Indianapolis team, has sent a complete report of the occurrence at the park last Friday to President Hickey, of the American Association. Umpire Cunningham reported the case, but the Indianapolis manager was anxious to give his statement of the affair to the head official of the organization. Manager Cantillon was ordered off the ground for permitting his players to coach from the bench. He then ordered his team from the field. President Hickey may call upon the Association magnates to decide the case, as it is a very unusual one. The Milwaukee club is subject to a fine of $500, and if it is paid the money will have to be paid to the Indianapolis club to reimburse it for the financial loss sustained by the game being forfeited in the first inning. Cantillon pursued a very unsportsmanlike policy in declaring that the whole affair was framed up by Manager Watkins. It would seem that if there was any framing done it was the action of the Milwaukee players and manager. They evidently feared they would lose the game, and to prevent such a loss they decided to forfelt the game. Whether the Milwaukee club will pay the fine without trouble is not known at this time. The Milwaukee club has been losing money this season, but even should President Havenor, of the Milwaukee club, desire to sell his franchise the new purchasers would have to pay the fine.

It is to be hoped there will never be another disgraceful scene such as was witnessed at the park last Friday. Cantillon should be severely punished for his action.

x x x It is difficult for the general public to understand the moves that are being made by President Johnson, of the American League, and a few of the National League magnates. The statement was sent out from Cincinnati last week that there would be a twelve-club league caused by the merging of the American and National leagues. A few months ago John T. Brush tried to induce the National League club owners to organize a tweive-club circuit, but they uld not see the wisdom of his argument, A twelve-club league was hooted at, but since Ban Johnson has come to the conclusion that most of his clubs are losing money he is anxious to arrange a twelve-club circuit. It was noticed in the proposed circuit tana Zelandia, and Moorhen, by Imp. that Mr. Brush was to have opposition in
